

The Royal African-Company, and Separate Traders, agree, That the following Particulars be provided for, in a Parliamentary Establishment of the African Trade, viz.

- I. THAT Forts and Settlements, be maintain'd and enlarg'd on that Coast.
- II. That the Charge of maintaining the said Forts and Settlements, be born out of the Trade.
- III. That the Contracts, already made, with the Natives, should be maintain'd, and other Alliances, from time to time, made, for the Inlargement of the Trade in Africa.
- IV. That the Plantations be supply'd, with sufficient Quantities of Negroes; at moderate Rates.
- V. That a considerable Stock, be appropriated, for the carrying on the Trade to Africa, to the best Advantage, and for preserving and improving the same.
- VI. That an Export of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, at least, in Merchandize, be annually made from Great-Britain to Africa.
- VII. That a large Stock of Goods, be always kept in the several Forts and Settlements, and that the Governours there, have Powers to dispose thereof.

A Computation of the Stock, that may be requisite in this Trade, in a Company Exclusive.

1. The Forts and Settlements, the Value of them, Two Hundred Thirty Eight Thousand One Hundred Ninety Four Pounds.
2. Goods for Sale, to stock the several Settlements, One Hundred Thousand Pounds.
3. Ships and their Cargoes, constantly going and coming, Two Hundred Thousand Pounds.
4. Credits to be given to the several Plantations, Three Hundred Thousand Pounds.
5. The Assiento Agreement, when obtain'd, may employ, to Advantage, Four Hundred Thousand Pounds.

In all, One Million Two Hundred Thirty Eight Thousand One Hundred Ninety Four Pounds.

This will be a sufficient undoubted Security to the Nation, that this Trade shall be preserved, and all the above Particulars effectually provided for.

The Royal African- can-Company, and Separate Traders At- gred.

The Royal African-Company, and Seperate Traders, agree, That the following Particulars be provided for, in a Parliamentary Establishment of the African Trade, viz.

- I. That the Charge of maintaining the said Forts and Settlements, be paid out of the Trade.
- II. That the Company, already established, with the said Forts, should be maintained, and other Advances, from time to time, made, for the better carrying on of the Trade, in Africa.
- III. That the Particulars here provided, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.
- IV. That a considerable Stock, be appropriated, for the carrying on the Trade, to wit, to the said Advances, and for purchasing and improving the Trade, in Africa.
- V. That the said Stock, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.
- VI. That the said Stock, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.
- VII. That the said Stock, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.
- VIII. That the said Stock, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.
- IX. That the said Stock, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.
- X. That the said Stock, be subject to the Order of the Honorable House of Commons.

A Corporation of the said Trade, it may be requisite in this Trade, in a Company established.

1. The Forts and Settlements, the Value of them, Two Hundred Thirty Eight Thousand One Hundred Ninety Four Pounds.
2. Goods for Sale, to stock the several Settlements, One Hundred Thousand Pounds.
3. Ships and their Carriages, constantly going and coming, Two Hundred Thousand Pounds.
4. Credits to be given to the several Plantations, Three Hundred Thousand Pounds.
5. The African Agreement, when obtained, may employ, to Advantage,
Four Hundred Thousand Pounds.

In all, One Million Two Hundred Thirty Eight Thousand
One Hundred Ninety Four Pounds.

This will be a sufficient undoubted Security to the Nation, that this Trade shall be preserved, and all the above Particulars effectually provided for.